

The weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law (docket number 02-278) is of major concern to me and to most Indiana residents. Since I signed up for this "no call" list, my unwanted phone calls went from at least 5 a day (some even leaving messages when I was away) to almost none. This has saved me from wasting my home time on unwanted and unnecessary sales calls. I am a single mother, who works full time (and over time) and I spend a minimum of 1 1/2 hours on the road every day traveling to and from work. The last thing I want in my limited time with my son, is to get a rude telemarketer trying to tell me that I am prequalified to borrow up to $65,000 on a home equity line when my home is only worth $81,000 and I still owe over $78,000. My time is valuable, and I would think these companies would understand that by badgering me, I am less likely to EVER go to their company for products or service. I am not alone in thinking that if I needed what they have to offer, that I would go to them. PLEASE DO NOT WEAKEN THIS LAW.
